In response to the regional need for increased Public Safety training, Yuut Elitnaurviat and AVCP are working with the Alaska Department of Public Safety to hold more Village and Tribal Police Officer training locally. Twelve officers traveled to Bethel for fourteen days of training so that they could become better equipped and prepared to serve the residents and communities of the Yukon-Kuskokwim Delta.

New ABE Facilitators identified for 2018/2019

Yuut Elitnaurviat and AVCP have partnered to ensure that GED tutors are available in twelve different communities across the Yukon-Kuskokwim Delta. Students who perform well will be invited to Bethel to participate in week-long subject intensives and test for their GED. Contact your facilitator in person to get started.

Alukanuk Facilitator: Lynn Mills	Chevak Facilitator: Brian Grieser	Emmonak Facilitator: Aziza Parker
Hooper Bay Facilitator: Gene Armstrong	Kwethluk Facilitators: Arlette Parker and Alex Kendall	Kipnuk Facilitator: Voni Eakins
Napakiak Facilitator: Tammi Sinoksy	Nunapitchuk Facilitators: Liane Lancaster and Jacqueline Wood	Pilot Station Facilitator: John Harris
Quinhagak Facilitator: Margaret Ford	Russian Mission Facilitator: Manju Singh	Tuluksak Facilitators: Randy Leedy and Dominic Diing

If you live in a village that does not have a facilitator, you can still work on your GED online. Contact the Bethel Regional ABE Center at 907-543-0951 or 907-543-0952 to talk with our ABE instructors about earning your GED.

Yuut Elitnaurviat Regional Aircraft Maintenance School

Thanks to partner organization AVCP, Yuut Elitnaurviat is now the owner of the only Aircraft Mechanic school in rural Alaska. Students who complete the 18 month training at our campus in Bethel will be able to test for federally recognized Airframe and Powerplant certifications. We are planning to begin a class in mid-February of 2019; people interested in a career as an Aircraft Mechanic should call 907-543-0999 for more information.
